

Did you know?

Canadian Cancer
Society

Healthy Workplaces

Powered
by

Did you know?

Canadian
Cancer
Society

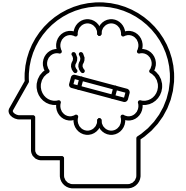

Healthy
Workplaces

Powered
by
iA
Financial Group

In Canada, no vaping products have been approved as smoking cessation aids

Vaping nicotine can be just as addictive as traditional cigarettes

The long-term risks of inhaling many of the chemicals found in vaping products are still unknown

There are many short-term side effects associated with vaping such as nausea, headaches, and coughing

Many vaping products contain greater amounts of nicotine than traditional cigarettes

